The Honorable Carter L. Burgess
Assistant Secretary of Defense (Manpower and Personnel)
Office of the Secretary of Defense
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Burgess:

Mr. Dulles has asked me to reply to your letter of 27 May 1955 in which you asked us to designate a representative to handle the details of the American-Korean Campaign in our Agency. I have designated [REDACTED] of the Office of Personnel to represent the Central Intelligence Agency. She may be contacted on [REDACTED]. As you requested, this information has been communicated to Mr. Nefflen of your office.

STATINTL

The dire need of the civilian population is well known. Consequently, I am anxious to lend my personal support to this campaign and feel sure the personnel of this Agency will give the current campaign the same fine support which they gave last year.

Sincerely yours,

SECRET

Harrison G. Reynolds
Director of Personnel
